1.0 Call to Order

Mr. Barishansky called the meeting to order at 11:09AM.

A. Introductions / Roll Call of Members

The task force members introduced themselves and their affiliations

B. Review of Task Force Purpose/Charges

Mr. Barishansky introduced Public Act 14-214 and the four specific charges suggesting that the group's members take on tasks that specifically interest them. Mr. Barishansky also volunteered to spearhead the effort on Task #2 concern Emergency Medical Services.

C. Appointment of Task Force Chair

Mr. Barishansky explained to the Task Force Members that the Commissioner must appoint a chair of the task force and that if anyone was interested in the position to let him know and he would advise the Commissioner.

D. Task Force Future Meeting Schedule

Mr. Barishansky solicited comments on developing a future meeting schedule and suggested the Task Force Force meets bi-weekly. Brian Cournoyer suggested that attendance might be an issue for some over the next two months with summer vacations. The members present however did agree that time was of an essence given the January deadline of the Task Forces Final Report. The group agreed to meet bi-weekly to start with a call-in option for those who could not make the meeting in person. Mr. Barishansky will send out a notice for future meetings.
